These figures on document holdings within the Agency may be useful to the DCI to emphasize the magnitude of the problem.

Agency Document Inventory

The latest Annual Summary of Records Holdings submitted to the National Archives in October 1977 reflected that the Agency was maintaining 523 million pieces of paper. An estimated 23% or 119.5 million pages of this material is Sensitive Compartmented Information (SCI).

As of September 1978 the Agency's automated Top Secret Control System reflected a total of 154,447 Top Secret collateral records in the system. There are fifty-three Area Top Secret Control Officers assigned to facilitate the transmission and control of this material.

An estimated 2% growth in our total holdings is anticipated upon completion of the next report of records holdings due in October 1978.
